First Step Pre-school Ltd

Our Mission Statement

Working together to support children's knowledge, understanding and curiosity of their environment.

Vision

First Step Pre-school Ltd values the trust parents/carers put in us to provide a safe and secure environment that not only educates but encourages curiosity. We have policies and procedures in place to ensure, equal opportunities, SEN and inclusion. First Step Pre-school Ltd will offer tapestry journals and each child will have its own keyworker.

Values

We will work with all children supporting them to build their confidence, self-esteem and to encourage their curiosity within their environment. Developing their knowledge through a stimulating and safe environment.

We believe that children who are offered a curriculum that encourages imagination, curiosity and creativity will develop confidence and self-esteem to enable them to transition to school.

Partnerships

Parents/carers are their child's first educators and as such are seen as partners, together we will build a strong relationships to make sure the sharing of information is a two-way ongoing process. Parents need to feel welcome, involved and informed of their child's development.

We also value the knowledge of our qualified staff.
